

CAROLINA YOUTH
DEVELOPMENT CENTER

GRATITUDE REPORT

2021

A MESSAGE FROM OUR CEO, BEVERLY HARDIN

2021 was another challenging, and encouraging, year for Carolina Youth Development Center. The pandemic continued to influence every aspect of our operation, limiting the options available to our youth, staff, and volunteers. On the other hand, much progress was made around staffing and development. Despite the ups and downs, one thing remains constant - regardless of the changes in the world, the economy, the pandemic, and the fast-paced world we live in - CYDC was here for the children and families who needed our assistance.

In our last fiscal year, 28% of our budget came from philanthropy. The services we provide to children and families in crisis simply would not be possible without the very generous support of foundations, corporations, and individual donors. Thank you for choosing to support Carolina Youth Development Center. You are truly making a meaningful impact on children and families of the Lowcountry, and we are so grateful for your support.

CELEBRATING IMPACT

Sarah grew up with a single mother. As a teenager, she found herself in a relationship where she was the victim of physical abuse. Sarah's home was no longer a safe space for her because her abuser kept showing up and threatening her. Sarah knew she needed to leave home, but where does a 19-year-old go with no job and no money? Sarah turned to CYDC. "CYDC gave me an opportunity to make new friends and to learn how to live independently."

Since she was a young child, Sarah found comfort in expressing herself through music and poetry. It had been a dream of hers to one day be an author. "I always felt I could write anything that was going on in my brain, I always had trouble vocalizing my thoughts or feelings but when I pull out a pencil or paper, it flows out of me so easily. I really wanted to write for me but then I started to think about all the people who have similar experiences, so I wanted to be a voice for them too," said Sarah.

Sarah's first book, Broken Butterflies, was published in December 2021 and is available for purchase on Amazon. She hopes to publish two more books soon. Sarah is grateful for her time at CYDC and said that CYDC gave her the chance to make her own decisions and to figure out her life. She continues to stay active in the L.Y.G.H.T. program, a peer grief support group offered by CYDC. Sarah continues to work towards her ultimate goal – being a full-time author.
